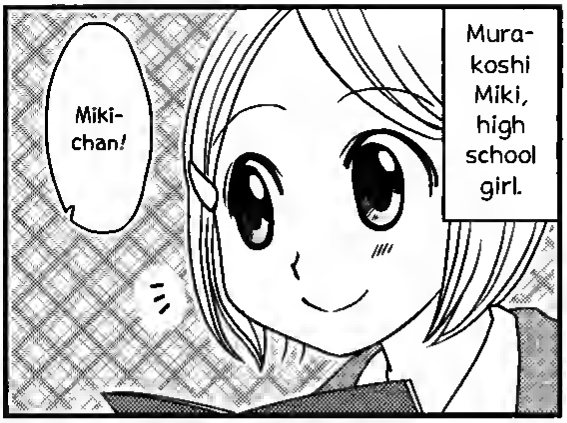
Ah!
Eh, no idea...
What's this, "This day, a grain of rice will double thousand-fold?"
Index

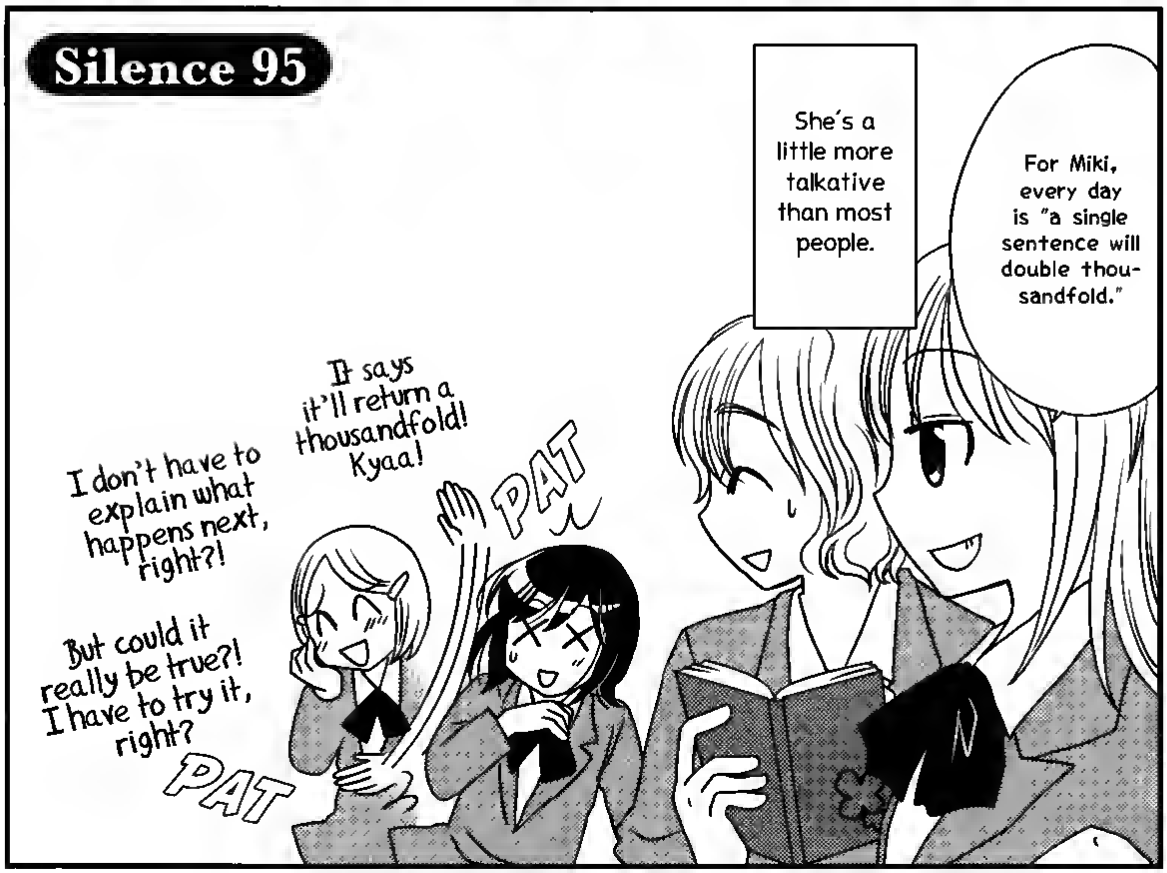


Miki-chan!
Mura-koshi Miki, high school girl.

Eeh? So, that day is a good day to confess your love?
A grand harvest from a single grain of rice
Heh
It means however the day starts, it will end well.

I haven't written in it though
Did you buy that day planner for next year?
Let me see it

Silence 95



She's a little more talkative than most people.
For Miki, every day is "a single sentence will double thou-sandfold."
It says it'll return a thousandfold! Kyaa!
I don't have to explain what happens next, right?!
But could it really be true?! I have to try it, right?

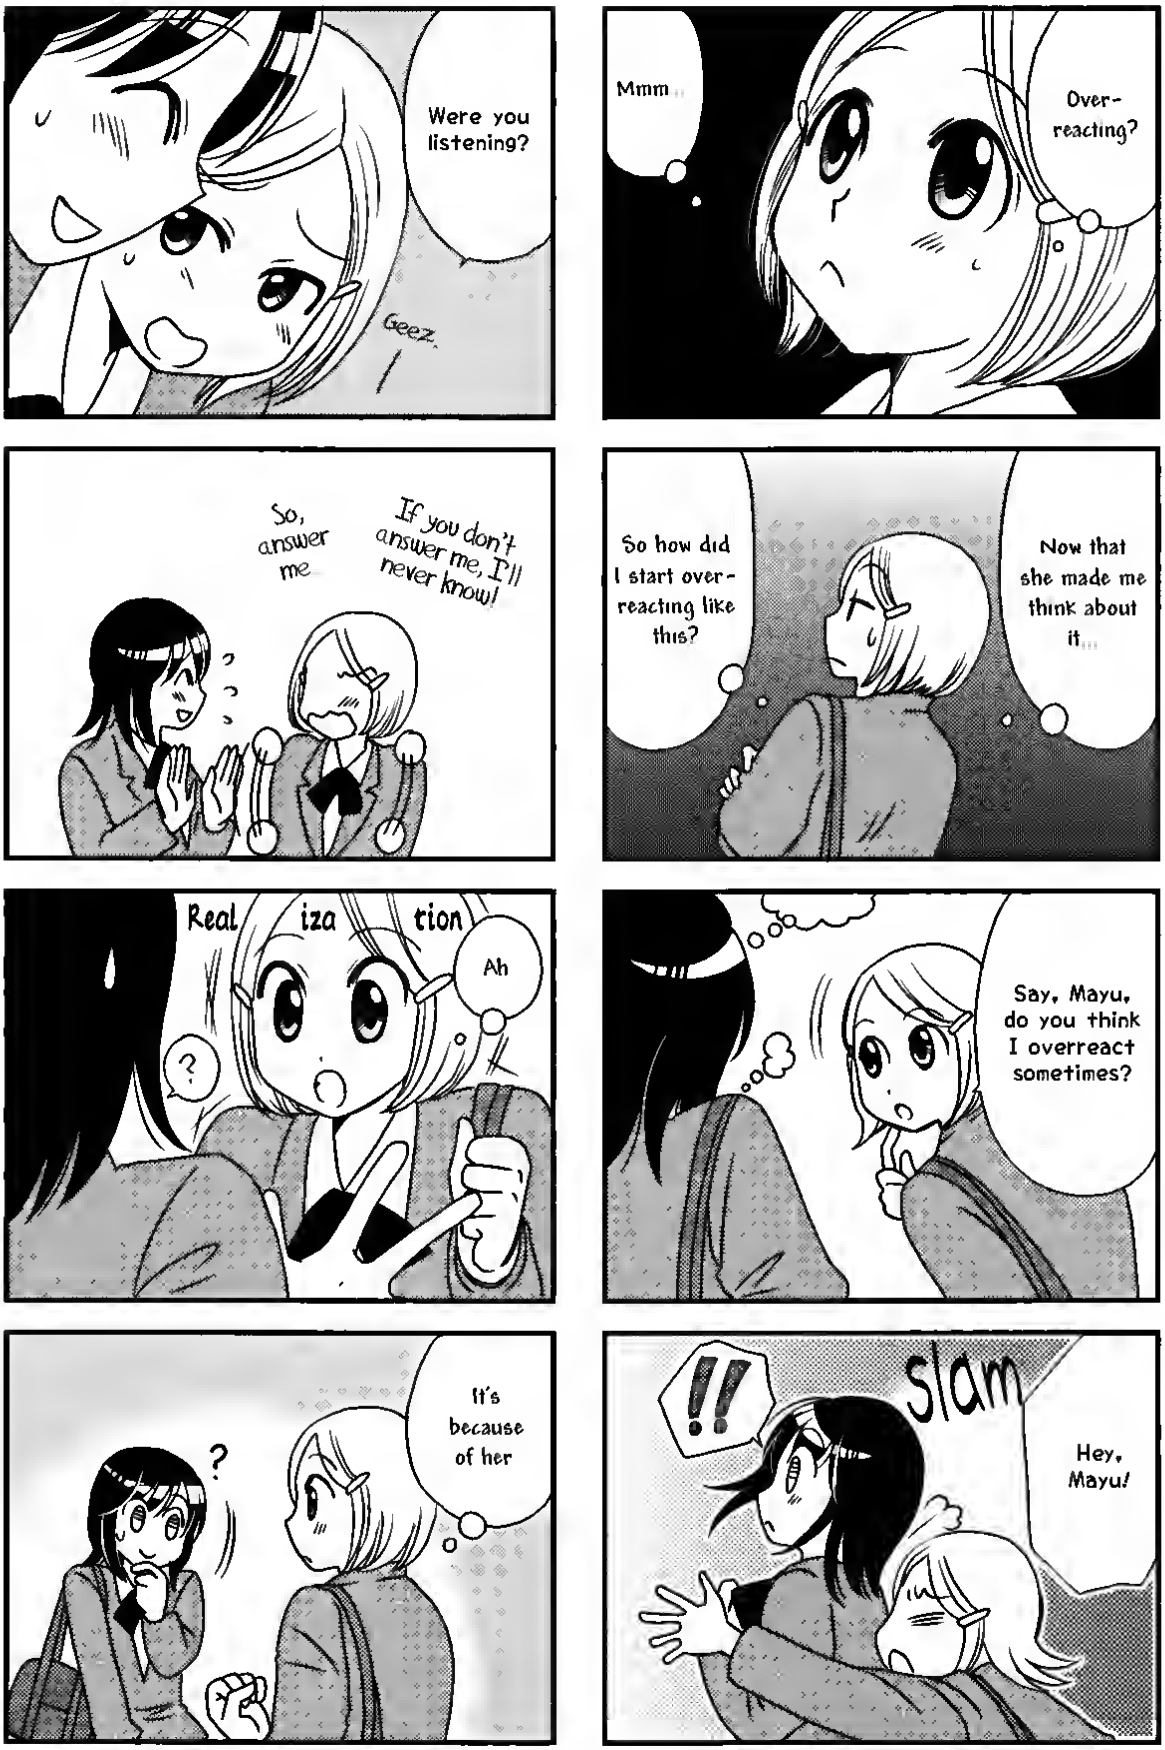
Oh, it was Mayu singing.



Were you listening?
Geez.

If you don't answer me, I'll never know!
